

The Compassion Code Academy Teaches Compassionate Communication Through the Lens of Grief

- A comprehensive communication, leadership, and professional development training & certification that will give you the tools and techniques you need to effectively navigate emotionally tough conversations (about change, grief, and loss of any kind) with confidence and compassion.
- The Compassion Code Academy develops compassionate leaders who will lead by example in a way that increases resiliency and productivity while inspiring connection, loyalty, and longevity.
- These Certified Compassionate Leaders are equipped with tools to work within their Organization to provide a wide range of support in-house, and to assist their clients or communities they serve.
- The program was developed by Laura Jack, Compassionate Communication Consultant, Grief Expert, and International Best Selling Author and Speaker.
